California Superior Court Appoints James H. Donell, CCIM, CPM As Receiver in Carmichael, California Real Property Case.

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (August 26, 2011) – The Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Sacramento today appointed James H. Donell as receiver in the case of OneWest Bank, FSB vs. Matsui Management Corporation, et al.

The case involves receivership of a 100-unit apartment building located in the City of Carmichael.

About Mr. Donell

Since 1990, Mr. Donell has administered and/or been appointed as a federal and state court receiver in more than 400 cases in California, Arizona, and Nevada. Many of these cases involved sub-standard real properties in the Western United States that required substantial rehabilitation due to deferred maintenance and major health and safety issues. Mr. Donell has extensive experience in residential and commercial real estate, asset and business liquidations, oil and gas partnerships, post judgment enforcement actions, as well as other types of receivership appointments. Mr. Donell has also administered and/or been appointed in federal court as the receiver in numerous United States Securities and Exchange Commission and other government enforcement actions involving business fraud both in California and in Nevada. These cases involve over 20,000 investors and $750 million of invested funds.
